DOCUMENT RESUME

ED 337 981 EC 300 723

TITLE Library Services for Parents. Bulletin No. 91543.
INSTITUTION Wisconsin School for the Deaf, Delavan.
PUB DATE 91
NOTE 18p.
AVAILABLE FROM Wisconsin School for the Deaf, Library Services for Parents, 309 W. Walworth Ave., Delavan, WI 53115.
PUB TYPE Reference Materials - Bibliographies (131)

EDRS PRICE MF01/PC01 Plus Postage.
DESCRIPTORS Child Rearing; *Deafness; Elementary Secondary Education; Periodicals; *Reading Materials; Teaching Methods

ABSTRACT

This guide describes suggested books and periodicals about deafness, available from some community libraries and the Wisconsin School for the Deaf library. The guide is divided into the following categories: fiction, drama, people stories, parenting, books for educators, periodicals and technical journals, and new titles. For each entry in the list, the following information is generally provided: title, author, publication date, publisher, number of pages, and annotation. Ten items for educators are also described. (JDD)

****
* Reproductions supplied by EDRS are the best that can be made * * from the original document. *
****

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Office of Educational Research and Improvement
EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES INFORMATION CENTER (ERIC)
☑ This document has been reproduced as received from the person or organization originating it.
☐ Minor changes have been made to improve reproduction quality.
• Points of view or opinions stated in this document do not necessarily represent official OERI position or policy.

ED337981

Library Services for Parents

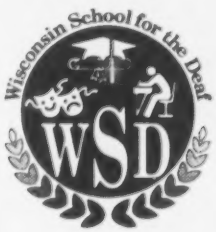
"PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE THIS MATERIAL HAS BEEN GRANTED BY
L. S. Hermatuck
TO THE EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES INFORMATION CENTER (ERIC)."

EC300723

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction/Herbert J. Grover, State Superintendent

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

Library Services for Parents



Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction
Herbert J. Grover, State Superintendent

Wisconsin School for the Deaf
John S. Shipman, Superintendent

This publication is available from:

Wisconsin School for the Deaf
Library Services for Parents
309 W. Walworth Avenue
Delavan, WI 53115
(414) 728-2677

Bulletin No. 91543

Printed on recycled paper.

The Department of Public Instruction does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or handicap.

Wisconsin School for the Deaf

Educational Service Center for the Hearing Impaired

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction/Herbert J. Grover, State Superintendent
Lyle C. Martens, Deputy State Superintendent/Victor J. Contrucci, Assistant Superintendent

John S. Shipman
Superintendent
309 W. Walworth Ave.
Delavan, WI 53115
(414) 728-2677

Dagny D. Bergstrom
Education Director
728-6477

Gary Blackmer
Vocational Supervisor
728-6362

Tom E. Harbison
High School Supervisor
728-6477

Alex Slappey
MHHI Supervisor
728-6381

Ann Shawver
Elementary Supervisor
728-6477

David Dropkin
Dean of Students
728-6812

Janice Watts
Assistant Dean
728-6812

Barbara DePriest
Head Nurse
728-6193

Earl Chandler
Business Manager
728-9089

John Soldano
Household Supervisor
728-6813

Bert Cook
Maintenance Supervisor
728-2180

This guide contains suggested books and periodicals that are available from the Wisconsin School for the Deaf library. Parents of deaf and hard of hearing children are encouraged to ask for these publications in their community libraries. If they are unavailable, however, parents of identified and evaluated hard of hearing or deaf children living in Wisconsin may borrow them by mail.

Upon receipt of a request, the library will forward the materials in special mailers that are reuseable for free return mailing. All materials must be returned in three weeks. Parents who know of books or materials that should be considered for inclusion in this booklet are encouraged to notify the school librarian.

Many thanks are in order for those who spent their time and effort researching, compiling, typing, and editing this booklet. Special acknowledgements are extended to former staff members Judy Grimm, Jim Hagen, and Mary Drushella. The dedicated work of WSD Librarian Betty Watkins, who is responsible for the original development of this volume, is greatly appreciated. This booklet was edited by Lisa Brockmeier of DPI Publications.

The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction and WSD are an equal opportunity employer functioning under an Affirmative Action Plan.

Fiction

Deaf
Fic.
Cor

A Dance to Still Music

by Barbara Corcoran
1974; Atheneum; 180 pages

◆ An earache leads to deafness for 14-year-old Margaret. Unable to adjust to her disability, she feels like an albatross around her mother's neck. A former honor student, Margaret rejects going to a school for the deaf, which she believes would only teach handicrafts, and decides to run away. Recommended for students in grades 7-9.

Deaf
Fic
Han

The Swing

by Emily Hanlon
1979; Bradbury; 209 pages

◆ Eleven-year-old Beth is deaf and feels that the swing near her family's summer home is her private possession. Danny, three years older, hates his step-father and resents Beth's use of the swing as well as her "intrusion" into his private place. The two become friends as they soothe each other's pain. Recommended for students in grades 7-9.

Deaf
Fic.
Jon

The Miracle of Love

by Helen Marie Jones
1969; Vantage; 63 pages

◆ This is the story of a young girl who has encountered numerous difficulties in her life as a result of her father's accident, the death of her mother, and her own spinal meningitis. The love she receives helps her overcome tragedy.

Jr Fic
Lit

Words in Our Hands

by Ada Bassett Litchfield
1980; A. Whitman; 32 pages

◆ The book's hero, 9-year-old Michael, explains the "facts" about deafness and his feelings about family life and other deaf students. Recommended for students in grades 4-6.

Deaf
Fic.
McC

The Heart is a Lonely Hunter

by Carson McCullers
1968; Scholastic; 307 pages

◆ McCullers tells the story of a deaf man and a teenage girl and the way they try to cope with their loneliness.

Deaf
Mys Nor

Island of Silence

by Carolyn Brimley Norris
1978; Alinda; 253 pages

◆ This is a story about a young man "imprisoned" by deafness and the young woman who taught him how to communicate.

Deaf
Fic
Nor

Signs Unseen, Sounds Unheard

by Carolyn Brimley Norris
1981; Alinda; 173 pages

◆ This novel deals with deafness from the point of view of a deaf boy.

Deaf
Fic
Ris

Apple is My Sign

by Mary Riskind
1981; Houghton Mifflin; 146 pages

◆ Harry is initially homesick for his parents' apple farm after spending his first term at a school for the deaf in Philadelphia. He soon makes friends and is excited about learning to draw and learning to talk. Aware that his father is ashamed of his own deafness, Harry learns to accept his deafness just as his mother has—as a disability, not a stigma. Recommended for students in grades 7-9.

Deaf
Jr Fic
Rob

David in Silence

by Veronica Robinson
1965; Lippincott; 126 pages

◆ David, who transfers from a boarding school for the deaf to a special day school in England, attempts to play soccer with the village boys. Misunderstanding and torments continue until he survives a perilous prank, which makes the team recognize his unusual bravery and stamina. The story conveys the difficulty deaf and hearing people have living and communicating with each other. Recommended for students in grades 4-6.

Deaf
Fic
Sco

Belonging

by Virginia M. Scott
1986; Kendall Green; 200 pages

◆ A 15-year-old girl must adjust to a new life and deafness after a bout with meningitis.

Deaf
Fic
See

The Kid

by John Seelye
1972; Viking, 119 pages

◆ The year is 1887, and a tall, deaf African is a guardian to a young companion. The youngster is the ears and voice of the older man. Together, they travel to Oregon to buy sheep.

PL
371.9
Wes

Gala

by Paul West
1976; Harper and Row; 207 pages

◆ West, author of the nonfiction book Words for a Deaf Daughter, provides a fictional sequel to that book. The story centers on Mandy, deaf and brain-damaged since age 2.

Drama

Deaf
812.4
Med

Children of a Lesser God: A Play in Two Acts

by Mark Howard Medoff
1980; publisher; 91 pages

◆ This award-winning play tells the story of James Leeds, a teacher at a school for the deaf, and Sarah Norman, one of his students, who refuses to conform to the hearing world's perception of what she should be.

People Stories

155.4
Lan

The Wild Boy of Aveyron

by Harlan Lane
1976; Harvard University Press; 1976

◆ This is the true and dramatic account of a wild boy found by a young French doctor. The doctor's experiences with the boy have been instrumental in shaping the education of deaf, retarded, and preschool children.

PL
305
Hig

Outsiders in a Hearing World: A Sociology of Deafness

by Paul Higgins
1980; Sage; 205 pages

◆ The author, the child of deaf parents, writes about the lives and personal experiences of deaf people from a social and historical perspective.

PL
362.4
Ben

Dancing Without Music Deafness in America

by Beryl Lieff Benderly
1980; Anchor/Doubleday; 302 pages

◆ This book sensitively portrays the world of deaf people, the social and educational impacts of deafness, and the intense need of humans to communicate. It also contains a history of attitudes toward deaf people.

Deaf
362.4
Cri

Through the Rain and Rainbow: The Remarkable Life of Richard Kinney

by Lyle M. Crist
1974; Abingdon; 224

◆ Richard Kinney lost his sight at age 7 and his hearing during his sophomore year in college. He became the third deaf-blind person in history to earn a college degree.

PL
362.4
Fea

A Difference in the Family: Life With a Disabled Child

by Helen Featherstone
1980; Penguin; 260 pages

◆ The author writes about the challenge of raising and accepting special children.

PL
Deaf
362.4
Gan

Deaf Heritage: A Narrative History of Deaf America

by Jack R. Gannon
1981; National Association of the Deaf; 483 pages

◆ The author, deaf since age 8, brings together stories that illustrate the deaf experiences in the United States over the past century.

PL
Deaf
362.4
Jac

A Deaf Adult Speaks Out

by Leo Jacobs
1980; Gallaudet University Press; 192 pages

◆ This book chronicles the obstructions and societal handicaps deaf people have encountered.

PL
362.4
Spr

Deaf Like Me

by Thomas and James Spradley
1978; Random House; 280 pages

◆ The authors tell the story of their family and how they were able to communicate with their sister, who was born deaf.

JL
362.7
Pet

I Have a Sister—My Sister is Deaf

by Jeanne Whitehouse Peterson
1977; Harper and Row; 32 pages

◆ A young girl writes about her deaf sister and how the hearing impaired sibling experiences everyday things. Recommended for students in grades K-3.

PL
371.9
Gol

The Girl Who Wouldn't Talk

by Cheryl and Jim Goldfeder
1973; National Association of the Deaf;
53 pages

◆ The book tells the story of Robin, a young deaf girl who encounters problems growing up in a world where everyone talks.

PL
371.9
Woo

The Forgotten People

by Williard Woods, Sr.
1973; Dixie; 185 pages

◆ The author examines the capabilities, struggles, and problems of deaf people.

JL
617.8
Lit

Deafness: A Personal Account

by David Wright
1969; Stein and Day; 213 pages

◆ Wright, who has been deaf for over 40 years, is recognized as an accomplished poet. He describes the world of deafness.

PL
681.9
Bod

Doris: The Story of a Disfigured Deaf Child

by Aron R. Bodenheimer
1974; Wayne State University Press;
129 pages

◆ This book tells the story of a child who was able to adjust her multiple disabilities as a result of psychotherapy.

Deaf
636.7
Tea

The Lost Dog

by Edwin Way Teale
1961; Dodd, Mead; 62 pages

◆ The book recounts the true adventure of Gerald Wear, a deaf man, who followed a circular route from his home in Oregon to Idaho and Washington state—a total of 1,752 miles—looking for his lost dog. Recommended for students in grades 4-6.

Deaf
920
Row

I'm Deaf, Too: Deaf Americans

by Frank Rowe
1973; National Association of the Deaf; 59 pages

◆ This book features stories about 12 deaf individuals who have been able to live normal and fulfilling lives despite their deafness.

Deaf
921 Bow

Changing the Rules

by Frank Bowe
1968; T.J. Publishers, Inc.; 204 pages

◆ This is the story of Bowe, who was born deaf and became a leader in the civil rights movement for disabled people.

Deaf
921
Bra

Signs of Silence: Bernard Bragg and the National Theater of the Deaf

by Helen Powers
1972; Dodd, Mead; 1976 pages

◆ This book tells the story of Bernard Bragg, a gifted and talented actor and one of the founders of the National Theater of the Deaf.

Deaf
921
One

Fastest Woman on Earth

by Alida M. Thacher
1980; Raintree; 45 pages

◆ This book is the biography of automobile racer and stunt woman Kitty O'Neil. Recommended for students in grades 4-6.

Parenting

PL 362.4 Bik

Let Our Children Go: An Organizing Manual for Advocates and Parents
by Douglas Biklin
1974; Human Policy Press; 144 pages
◆ Parents of disabled children often have a difficult time locating services. This book outlines the rights disabled children have and the way parents can work to ensure those rights.

PL 362.4 Fea

A Difference in the Family: Living With a Deaf Child
by Helen Featherstone
1980; Basic Books; 262 pages
◆ The author, the mother of a severely disabled child, writes with understanding about parental feelings, methods for coping with those emotions, and the need to accept a child's disability.

PL 362.4 Fer

A Hug Just Isn't Enough
by Caren Ferris
1980; Gallaudet University Press; 91 pages
◆ This book, developed from interviews with parents of deaf and hearing impaired children, provides practical information on the responsibilities involved in raising deaf children.

PL 362.4 Fre

Can't Your Child Hear? A Guide for Those Who Care About Deaf Children
by Roger Freeman, Clifton Carbin, and Robert Boese
1981; University Press; 340 pages
◆ This book offers parents advice on how to raise a deaf child.

PL 362.4 Nai

For Parents of Deaf Children
by Doris Naiman and Jerome Schein
1978; National Association of the Deaf; 57 pages
◆ This booklet outlines a program for emotionally disturbed children focusing on the prevention of emotional problems.

PL 371.9 Bri

Mainstreaming the Prelingually Deaf Child: A Study of the Status of Prelingually Deaf Children in Various Patterns of Mainstreamed Education for Hearing Impaired Children
by Richard Brill
1978; Gallaudet University Press; 196 pages
◆ This report is a study of the status of prelingually deaf children in various patterns of mainstreamed education.

PL 371.9 Col

If you Have a Deaf Child: A Collection of Helpful Hints to Mothers of Pre-School Children
Illinois Annual School for Mothers of Deaf Children
1965; University of Illinois Press; 134 pages
◆ This collection of articles offers helpful hints to parents of pre-school deaf children.

PL 371.9 Dai

Deaf Children at Home and School
by Dion M.C. Dale
1967; C.C. Thomas; 272 pages
◆ This book contains practical advice for parents, teachers, and others who care for deaf children. The book covers social training, language development, and the need for cooperation between home and school.

PL 371.9 Mye

The Law and the Deaf
by Lowell Myers
1964; U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare Vocational Rehabilitation Administration; 225 pages
◆ This report outlines the legal problems deaf people can face when dealing with a hearing society.

PL 393 Ste

About Dying: An Open Family Book for Parents and Children Together by Sara Bonnet Stein, Gilbert Kliman, and Dick Frank 1974; Walker; 47 pages
◆ This book helps parents to explain one of the most difficult experiences for children to understand, the death of a family member or friend.

PL 616.1 Adl

Your Overactive Child: Normal or Not?
by Sidney J. Adler and Keith Terry
1972; Medcom; 70 pages
◆ The book contains information about hyperactive children for people who have not had experience identifying or analyzing this condition.

JL 617.8 Lit

A Button in Her Ear
by Ada Bassett Litchfield
1976; A. Whitman; 32 pages
◆ A young girl relates how her hearing loss was detected and corrected with the use of a hearing aid. Recommended for students in grades K-3.

PL 649 Bar

The Parent of the Handicapped Child: The Study of Child-Rearing Practices
by Ray Barsch
1968; Thomas; 435 pages
◆ Parents of handicapped children discuss techniques they use to meet the needs of their youngsters.

PL 921 Wes

Words for a Deaf Daughter
by Paul West
1970; New American Library; 192 pages
◆ The father of Mandy, diagnosed as deaf and brain-damaged when she was two, writes his account of the treatment she undergoes at age 8.

For Educators

PL 371.9 Ben

The Conquest of Deafness: A History of the Long Struggle to Make Possible Normal Living to Those Handicapped by Lack of Normal Hearing
by Ruth Bender
1988; Interstate; 216 pages
◆ This book is a history of the struggle to give deaf people the opportunity to live a normal life. It is considered a important reading for people interested in the education of deaf children.

PL 371.9 Fie

Deaf Children in a Hearing World: Their Education and Adjustment
by Miriam Forster Fiedler
1952; Ronald, 320 pages
◆ This book describes an educational experiment in which deaf and hearing impaired children associate with hearing counterparts.

PL 371.9 Gar

The World of Silence: A New Venture in Philosophy
by Christopher Browne Garnet, Jr.
1967; Greenwich, 169 pages
◆ Based on his experience teaching philosophy to deaf students, Garnett offers a theory of language.

PL 371.9 Lev

Youth in a Soundless World: A Search for Personality
by Edna Levin
1956; New York University Press; 217 pages
◆ The book discusses the psychological needs of deaf people and the effect of deafness on personality and social development.

PL 371.9 Min

They Grow in Silence: The Deaf Child and His Family
by Eugene Mindell and McCay Vernon
1971; National Association of the Deaf;
118 pages
◆ The authors provide psychiatric and psychological information about hearing impaired children.

PL 371.9 Pal

Speech and Hearing Problems: A Guide for Teachers and Parents
by Charles Palmer
1961; C.C. Thomas; 137 pages
◆ This "first aid" manual for teachers provides practical information on how to work with deaf and hearing impaired children.

PL 371.9 Sch

The Deaf Community: Studies in the Social Psychology of Deafness
by Jerome Schein
1968; Gallaudet University Press; 101 pages
◆ The book offers a collection of studies dealing with the social psychology of deafness.

PL 371.9 Sch

Sound and Sign: Childhood Deafness and Mental Health by Hilde Schlesinger and Kathryn Meadow
1972; University of California Press; 262 pages
◆ This book describes the study of the effects of deafness on personality development and language acquisition using sign language. Information is presented on parent-child interactions, differences in the development of deaf and hearing children, and comparisons of deaf children who have deaf parents with deaf children who have hearing parents.

PL 371.9 Seg

No Child is Ineducable: Special Education—Provisions and Trends
by Stanley Segal
1967; Pergamon; 332 pages
◆ The book discusses the theory behind special education services, lists resources (organizations, facilities, and media), and explains recent trends.

PL 371.9 Wol

Games Without Words: Activities for Thinking Teachers and Thinking Children by Sidney Wolff and Caryl Wolff
1974; Thomas; 101 pages
◆ This book provides teachers and parents with ideas for games and activities that teach as well as amuse.

Language/ Signing

PL 001.54 Kli

Sign Language Made Simple
by Edgar Lawrence
1975; Gospel; 240 pages
◆ The book has practical tips for parents of deaf children who want to learn sign language.

PL 001.54 Law

The Signs of Language
by Edward Klima, Ursula Bellugi, and Robbin Battison
1979; Harvard University Press; 417 pages
◆ Language is more than a vocal-auditory form of communication. Working from this premise, the authors discuss sign language and offer practical tips for learning this form of communication.

PL 001.54 Rie

The Joy of Signing: The New Illustrated Guide for Mastering Sign Language and the Manual Alphabet
by Lottie Riekehof
1978; Gospel; 336 pages
◆ This book, one of the most comprehensive guides available, provides a detailed explanation of the grammar of American Sign Language.

Deaf 371.9 Boa

A Dictionary of Idioms for the Deaf

by Maxine Tull Boatner and John Edward Gates
1966; American School for the Deaf; 364 pages

◆ This book, a supplement to existing school dictionaries, is a reference to help deaf people understand English phrases that cannot readily be understood from the definition of the phrase (for example, "as well as," "dark of the moon," and "make eyes at it").

Periodicals and Technical Journals

Nov. 1911 to present

American Annals of the Deaf

Convention of Executives of American Schools of the Deaf 814 Thayer Ave.
Silver Springs, MD
5 issues/yr.

◆ The journal's aim is to improve the quality of education and services for hearing impaired people. Topics covered include the ways students with various hearing impairments learn and organizational matters in hearing education. The publication also features literature reviews and surveys, experimental research, association announcements, a volume of ideas and resources for teachers, and book reviews.

Jan. 1965 to present

The Deaf American

National Association of the Deaf
445 N. Pennsylvania St., Suite 804
Indianapolis, IN 46204
4 issues/yr.

◆ This publication is for professionals and laypeople seeking in-depth articles about issues affecting the deaf community. Recent articles cover such topics as dogs for the deaf, film and program captioning, interpreters, deaf personalities, and political, educational, and social issues.

Trial Issue (1987) to present

Deaf Life

MSM Productions, Ltd.
85 Farragut St.
Rochester, NY 14611
12 issues/yr.

◆ The purpose of this publication is "to generate better visibility and representation of hearing impaired persons in the larger world." Articles include personality profiles, stories about organizations, and discussions of social issues. Regular features include: "For Hearing People Only," a reader's viewpoint column, and "Improve Your Foreign Language English."

Jan. 1984 to present

Exceptional Children

Council for Exceptional Children
1920 Association Drive
Reston, VA 22091
6 issues/yr.

◆ The official journal of CEC contains articles of research, documented position papers, state-of-the-art reviews of all areas of special education, and association news. Physical, mental, and emotional handicaps in children are covered, along with articles on special issues, such as litigation and curriculum.

Autumn /Winter 1970 to present

Exceptional Parent

Psy-Ed Corp.
605 Commonwealth Ave.
Boston, MA 02215
8 issues/yr.

◆ This publication is for parents of physically or mentally handicapped children and contains practical information on job hunting, obtaining prosthetic and other devices, and educational assistance. The publication also reviews relevant titles of material for parents and siblings of handicapped children.

Autumn /Winter 1970 to present

Gallaudet Today

Department of Publications and Production
Gallaudet University
800 Florida Ave. NE
Washington, DC 20002
4 issues/yr.

◆ All stories have some connection to Gallaudet College, the only liberal arts college for the deaf. Articles include profiles of students, graduates, faculty and staff, and programs.

Jan. 1984 to present

Journal of Learning Disabilities

Fairchild Publications
7 E. 12th St.
New York, NY 10003
10 issues/yr.

◆ This publication is for teachers who work with learning-disabled children in regular or special classes. Articles discuss the impact of deafness on learning-disabled students and include empirical research and discussions of a particular point of view. Regular features include a column on computers in schools, a calendar of association meetings; and book reviews.

April 1987 to present

Journal of Rehabilitation of the Deaf

American Deafness and Rehabilitation Association
P.O. Box 55369
Little Rock, AR 72225
4 issues/yr.

◆ This journal publishes scholarly and technical articles of interest to professionals working with deaf and hearing impaired people. Recent articles include the relationship of nonverbal intelligence measures to academic achievement among deaf adolescents, instruments for assessing sign language skills of rehabilitation counselors, and the impact of technology on the employment of older deaf workers.

Spring 1984 to present

The Journal of Special Education

PEO-ED
5341 Industrial Oaks Blvd
Austin, TX 78735
4 issues/yr.

◆ Articles cover numerous aspects of special education that apply to general education (for example, teacher effectiveness, student issues, legal matters) along with original research studies and scholarly reviews of the literature.

May 1987 to present

Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
10801 Rockville Pike
Rockville, MD 20852
4 issues/yr

◆ Scholarly articles in this publication deal with the practical application of research for remediation of speech pathology. The publication's intended audience is professionals who provide clinical services to individuals with speech disorders and to researchers who study the etiology, assessment, and treatment of speech disorders.

Premier Issue 1982 to present

Perspective for Teachers of the Hearing Impaired

Pre-College Programs
Gallaudet University
800 Florida Ave NE
Washington, DC 20002
5 issues/yr

◆ This publication, which features popularly written articles and teaching strategies, is for special education and mainstream teachers of hearing impaired students. Recent articles cover such topics as the benefits of reading to deaf children, the education of deaf children in the Soviet Union, and techniques for helping deaf children avoid sexual abuse.

Current Issue Only

Preview

Pre-College Programs Gallaudet University
800 Florida Ave NE
Washington, DC 20002
5 issues/yr

◆ This magazine contains articles about Gallaudet's pre-college programs as well as features about Gallaudet staff and graduates, Kendall Demonstration Elementary School, and the Model Secondary School for the Deaf.

Oct. 1973 to present

Sign Language Studies

Linstok Press
9306 Mintwood St.
Silver Spring, MD 20901
4 issues/yr.

◆ This scholarly publication is a forum for research reports, reviews, and preliminary studies related to human gesture, anthropology, psycholinguistics, psychology, linguistics, and sociolinguistics. Articles cover theory and application.

Current Issue Only

Silent News: The National Magazine for All the Deaf

Silent News
P.O. Box 23330
Rochester, NY 14692
12 issues/yr.

◆ This publication, considered to be "The World's Most Popular Newspaper for the Deaf," has a variety of articles of interest to deaf and hearing impaired people.

Summer 1975 to present

Teaching English to Deaf and Second Language Students

Department of English
Gallaudet University
800 Florida Ave. NE
Washington, DC 20002
3 issues/yr.

◆ This journal publishes articles of practical interest to classroom teachers of deaf, hearing impaired, and non-native students. Recent articles include using American Sign Language to teach English as a second language and survival English for deaf refugees.

Jan. 1958 to present

The Volta Review

Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf
3417 Volta Pl. NW
Washington, DC 20007
7 issues/yr.

◆ Most articles deal with original research on varied topics (for example, fitting children with hearing aids, teacher's evaluations of the behavior of hearing impaired children, and the correlation between learning disabilities and hearing impairment). Reviews of computer software and books are included.

New Titles

Fiction

Deaf Jr Mys AND

The Mystery of the Disappearing Newspaper

by Jean F. Andrews
1988; Gallaudet University Press; 100 pages

◆ Entering a new school, Donald struggles with his learning disability and makes friends with a deaf boy who teaches him sign language and joins Donald in a search for a newspaper thief. Recommended for students in Grade 3.

Deaf Jr Mys And

The Secret in the Dorm Attic

by Jean F. Andrews
1990; Gallaudet University Press; 100 pages

◆ While visiting his friend Matt on the campus of his special school for the deaf, nine-year-old Donald discovers strange things going on in the attic of Matt's dorm and becomes involved in the theft of a priceless necklace from a nearby museum. Recommended for students in Grade 3.

Deaf Fic Hod

A Season of Change

by Lois L. Hodge
1987; Gallaudet University Press, 100 pages

◆ A 13-year-old hearing impaired girl feels frustrated by her limitations, but tries hard to assert her independence.

Deaf Fic Hof

A Very Special Friend
by Dorothy Hoffman
19898; Gallaudet University Press Unp.;
◆ In search of a friend her own age, six-year-old Frannie meets Laura, who is deaf, and learns sign language from her.

Deaf Jr Fic LaM

Now I Understand
by Gregory S. LaMore
1986; Gallaudet College Press; 48 pages
◆ A classroom teacher explains to the students how it feels to be hearing impaired, how the ear hears, and ways the hearing impaired accommodate for their loss.

Deaf Fic Lev

Annie's World
by Nancy Smiler Levinson
1990; Gallaudet University Press, 97 pages
◆ Annie, who has been nearly deaf since she was seven, must leave her school and be mainstreamed into a public high school, an adjustment which she finds difficult, but ultimately not impossible to continue.

Nonfiction

PL 302.7 Doy

Helping the Severely Handicapped Child: A Guide for Parents and Teachers
by Phyllis Doyle, John Goodman, Jeff Grotsky, and Lester Mann
1979; Thomas Y. Crowell; 150 pages
◆ Simple in language and approach, this book is invaluable for parents and teachers of mentally retarded children and young people (ages 3 to 21) with severe physical impairments.

PL 305.9 Lan

When the Mind Hears: A History of the Deaf
by Harlan Lane
1984; Random House; 357 pages
◆ This book is a comprehensive history of the deaf and their relationship with hearing academic communities. The book has been described as "a compassionate study of the anatomy of prejudice and the motives and means of oppression.

PL 305.9 Nei

The Other Side of Silence: Sign Language and the Deaf Community in America
by Arden Neisser
1983; Alfred A. Knopf; 301 pages
◆ The book details an extraordinary journey into the world of the deaf in America and makes readers aware of what it means to be deaf and the ways in which people who cannot hear experience their lives.

Deaf 305.9 Van

A Place of Their Own
by John V. VanCleve
1989; Gallaudet University Press; 212 pages
◆ Traces the history of deaf people in America, focusing on the deaf community during the 19th century.

PL 362.4 Fle

Ben's Story
by Lorraine Fletcher
1987; Gallaudet University Press; 267 pages
◆ Tells of the struggle of a young British couple to provide their son with sign language and to be taught using Total Communication.

PL 362.4 Him

How to Survive a Hearing Loss
by Charlotte Himber
1989; Gallaudet University Press; 241 pages
◆ Offers the understanding and practical information needed by people who have lost their hearing.

PL 362.4 Lut

Deafness in the Family
by David Luterman
1987; Little, Brown; 124 pages
◆ This book discusses how "typical" families can be affected by a child's hearing impairment. This book entertains as well as teaches.

PL
362.4
Sch

At Home Among Strangers

by Jerome D. Schein
1989; Gallaudet University Press; 254 pages

◆ A portrait of the deaf community as a complex social network that offers unique kinship to deaf people across the country.

PL
362.8
Ogd

The Silent Garden

by Paul Ogden and Suzanne Lipsett
1982; St. Martin's; 227 pages

◆ This book provides objective, understandable information and the issues and responsibilities confronting parents of deaf children.

Deaf
371.91
Gan

The Week the World Heard Gallaudet

by Jack R. Gannon
1989; Gallaudet University Press; 212 pages

◆ Chronicles in narrative and photographs an amazing week in the history of a unique institution.

Deaf
419
Gre

Discovering Sign Language

by Laura Greene
1981; Gallaudet University Press, 175 pages

◆ Discusses the development of sign language and describes how it is used in conjunction with finger spelling, speech reading, and other forms of communication to help individuals with impaired hearing.

Deaf
419
Shr

Signs Across America

by Edgar Shroyer and Susan Shroyer
1984; Gallaudet University Press; 285 pages

◆ Did you know there are at least 17 ways to say Halloween and 12 ways to ask for a cracker in sign language? The dictionary uses clear, detailed drawings to show how various signs are made in different regions of the United States. The book includes an explanation of why signs differ from place to place.

Deaf
808.83
Bat

Angels and Outcasts: An Anthology of Deaf Characters in Literature

edited by Trent Batson and Eugene Bergman
1985; Gallaudet University Press; 347 pages

◆ This collection of essays by and about deaf people is for those interested in a greater understanding of deafness and of how attitudes and prejudices about deafness in Western culture have changed, or remained the same, over the years.

Deaf
921
Bra

Lessons in Laughter

by Bernard Bragg
1989; Gallaudet University Press; 219 pages

◆ The autobiography of the deaf actor Bernard Bragg as signed to Eugene Bergman.

Deaf
921
Kis

What's That Pig Outdoors?

by Henry Kisor
1990; Hill and Wag; 270 pages

◆ An autobiography of a man totally deaf since childhood who became a distinguished journalist.

Signed Language Books for Children

The Signed English Series combines printed text with pictures of sign language vocabulary. The books can help deaf and hearing impaired children learn English while teaching their siblings sign language.

The Signed English Series is available from:
Kendall Green Publications
Gallaudet University Press
800 Florida Ave.
Washington, DC

These books are not available for long-term loan.

Growing Up Books features colorful stories about the world children live in. Titles include: Be Careful; The Clock Book; How To; The Holiday Book; and Spring is Green.

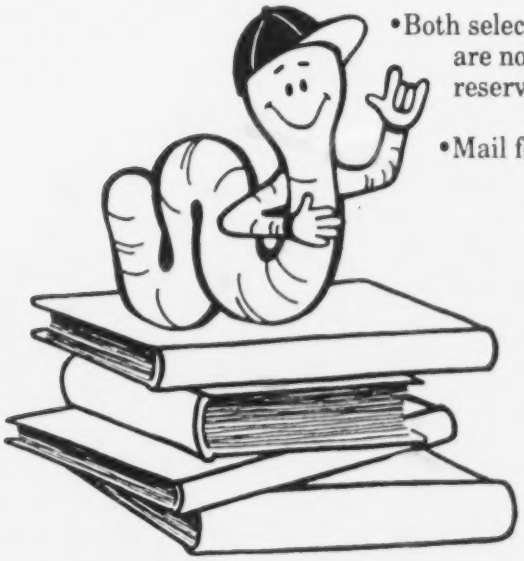
Daily Experiences expose children to basic vocabulary, phrases, and simple sentences. Titles include: A Book About Me; All By Myself; My Animal Book; Count and Color; and The Things I Like to Do.

Stories and Poems are familiar nursery rhymes. Titles include: Hansel and Gretel; Little Red Riding Hood; The Ugly Duckling; Little Poems for Little People; and Songs in Signed English.

How to Place an Order

Please remember to first seek these publications in your local library. Materials that you order will be sent in special mailers that can be re-used for free return mailing. Materials should be returned within three weeks after receiving them.

- Write the title and author's name on the form below.
- Please limit your choices to two selections at a time.



- Both selections will be sent if they are available. If they are not available immediately, they will be placed on reserve and mailed to you as soon as possible.
- Mail form to: Wisconsin School for the Deaf
  Library Services for Parents
  309 West Walworth Ave.
  Delavan, WI 53115

Please send me the following books or periodicals:

1. Title: _____

   Author: _____

2. Title: _____

   Author: _____

To:

Name
Street Address
City/State/ZIP

Mail form to:
Wisconsin School for the Deaf, Library Services for Parents, 309 West Walworth Ave., Delavan WI 53115.